BIG SEASON OF SPRING

SPORTS PLANNED AS THREE TEAMS BEGIN TRAINING

Baseball, Track and Tennis Candidates to do Indoor Work Pending Warmer Weather

SCHEDULES ANNOUNCED

This year promises to be the biggest year in spring sports that Ursinus has ever had. Schedules have been arranged for baseball, tennis and track teams, the latter a new sport at Ursinus as far as any extensive intercollegiate competition is concerned.

Coach Kichline sent out his first call today for baseball practice, pitchers and catchers reporting in the Field Cage for indoor workouts until warm weather permits the entire squad to limber up their soupbones out of doors.

Practices and games this year will again be held in the High School Athletic Field.

The 1928 baseball schedule as approved by the Athletic Council and released by Manager Joseph Armento includes twelve games, seven on alien diamonds and five at home.

Osteopathy, Swarthmore, Drexel, Muhlenberg, and the Alumni compose the home engagements while two trips will be made, one to F. & M. and State and another to Bucknell and Susquehanna.

The Alumni game on June 9 will come on the Saturday of Commencement Week.

The schedule follows:

April 14	Osteopathy	home
April 20	F. & M.	away
April 21	State College	away
April 30	Swarthmore	home
May 5	Leb. Valley	away
May 8	Drexel	home
May 10	Bucknell	away
May 11	Susquehanna	away
May 16	Muhlenberg	home
May 19	Delaware	away
May 23	Penn.	away
June 9	Alumni	home

The tennis team is to begin practice for the time being in the field cage. While the complete schedule is not yet ready for publication, it is quite a lengthy one, including in the neighborhood of nineteen or twenty matches.

Ursinus is to enter a new realm of athletic endeavor when a complete track and field team will engage in three dual meets, two of them at home, one conference meet and the usual Penn Relays. The cinder path artists are under the tutelage of Prof. Ralph W. Veatch, who strode a nasty mile in his undergraduate days. The complete track schedule is as follows:

Haverford Home, April 14

Temple Home April 21

Penn Relays April 28

Interclass meet Home May 4

Conference Meet .. Bucknell, May 12

Schuylkill Schuylkill, May 19.

FROSH-SOPH GAME TONIGHT

The Freshman-Sophomore basketball supremacy will be determined this evening when these two classes will engage in their annual feud on the Thompson-Gay Court.

The yearlings will have an organized team to combat their more experienced Soph adversaries. Sterner, Egge, Campiglio, Coble and Dotterer will probably compose the Frosh quintet while Houtz will join the enemy forces and play for the Sophs.

The Sophomores are forced to build their team around "Pep" Young, Strine, Peters and Wiedensaal. Alden, Houtz, W. Francis, Riordan, and probably Black will complete the second year squad.

Lloyd Hoagey and Harry Bigley are slated to act as officials while the game is scheduled to get under way at 8 o'clock.

R. G. TRUCKSESS SPEAKS

BEFORE H.-P. GROUP, TUES.

The Historical-Political Group had its best meeting of the year last Tuesday evening when it was given an informal talk concerning the legal profession by Robert G. Trucksess, an attorney-at-law, of Norristown.

Mr. Trucksess, ex-'19, was, among other things, a member of the Historical-Political Group when he was a student at Ursinus and is the donor of the Historical-Political Group Prize which is given to that senior in the group who gives most promise of success in later life. Details of the conditions under which the Group Prize is awarded are now being worked out and will be made known in the near future.

The talk was preceded by a musical number, "On the Road to Mandalay," by Speaks. This selection, sung by William Saalman, '29, and accompanied at the piano by C. Richard Snyder '29, was well rendered and appreciated. Mr. Trucksess then pointed out that the four large divisions of law are The Rights of Persons, The Rights of Things and Property, Private Wrongs and Public Wrongs. In a really entertaining and very enlightening talk lasting an hour and a half he developed and explained the sub topics under each of the above major divisions. During the course of his informal talk numerous questions were raised and Mr. Trucksess discussed the legal aspects of many points of timely, local and general interest.

CAST AND COMMITTEES

FOR ZWING PLAY CHOSEN

Tryouts for "The Sign on the Door" to be given by Zwinglian Literary Society on March 23, were held on Monday, March 4. The play was written by Channing Pollock. The scene is laid in New York. The coaches are Professor and Mrs. F. I. Sheeder.

A large number of the members tried out for the various parts. Those selected were, for the prologue: Hugh, a waiter, Joseph Armento; Frank Devereaux, William Williams; Ann Hunniwell, Lois Nickel; Captain Burke, William McGarvey; newspaper photographer, Joel Francis. The cast for the main play are: Mrs. "Lafe" Regan, Lois Nickel; Alan Churchill, Sherwood Peters; Helen Regan, Ann Murray; Marjorie Blake, Charlotte Berger; "Lafe" Regan, Paul Krasley; Henry Pyle, William Ferguson; "Kick" Callahan, Robert Weller; Officer McLaughlin, Joel Francis; "Rud" Whiting, Joseph Armento. A few minor parts have not yet been assigned.

"WHAT PRICE GLORY" TO SHOW IN GYM THEATRE, WED.

The Wm. Fox photoplay "What Price Glory" will be shown in the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium on Wednesday, March 14, at eight o'clock.

This picture depicts in a very realistic way the truth of war, not omitting any of the gruesome scenes. An amusing amorous competition between two of Uncle Sam's fighters proves of interest, and the comedy scenes are especially fine.

An eighteen-piece orchestra, composed mainly of Ursinus students, will play during the showing of the entire production. The film is being shown for the benefit of the Collegeville Post of the American Legion. Tickets are fifty cents.

CO-EDS SWAMPED BY FAST PASSING AND EAGLE EYES OF SWARTHMORE LASSIES

McGARVEY HIGH FOR LOSERS

The 'Sinus sextet, who journeyed to Swarthmore on Wednesday, March 7, was unable to cope with the speedy Garnet maids and come home on the short end of a 73 to 25 tabulation.

Although handicapped by a small court, the Ursinus team put up a hard fight and played a far better game than the score indicates. Swarthmore co-eds have not been defeated in basketball in almost three years and Ursinus was its twenty-seventh straight victim.

Gertrude Jolls, captain and star forward of the Swarthmore team, was the outstanding player. With an easy, clever way of evading her guard and just naturally dropping the ball thru the cords, she scored thirty-eight points for her team.

At the other end of the court Sally McGarvey and Sally Hoffer endeavored to keep the colors of Ursinus flying by playing their usual fast game. Almost every time the Ursinus forwards got possession of the sphere they accounted for a field goal or a foul shot. Sally McGarvey was high scorer for Ursinus with six field goals and two shots from the penalty line.

HARRISBURG ALUMNI MEET

AT PENN-HARRIS HOTEL

The alumni of the Harrisburg district held their annual meeting and dinner at the Penn-Harris hotel on Saturday evening, March 3. The dinner, at which covers were laid for twenty, was served at a special table in the main dining room at 6.30. After dinner the party retired to one of the parlors of the hotel where a delightful evening was spent in reviewing the work of Alma Mater and in reminiscences of college days. President Omwake, Vice President Isenberg and Professors Boswell and Brownback were present from the College. The Association discussed ways of extending its influence and promises to become one of the stronger local alumni organizations of Ursinus.

E. M. Hershey, '00, who presided, was reelected president for the ensuing year. There were sincere expressions of Mr. Hershey's interest and leadership. B. M. Light, '20, of Hummelstown was elected Vice President and W. M. Rife, '98, of Carlisle, Secretary and Treasurer.

WHITMAN PLACES SECOND IN ORATORICAL CONTEST

S. R. Whitman, '28, winner of last year's Junior Oratorical Contest, took second place in the Eastern Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Oratorical Union contest held at Muhlenberg College on Friday, March 2. His subject was "The Great Game of Politics," Muhlenberg's representative took first place.

Whitman will go to Geneva College, Beaver Falls, Penna., on Friday, March 16, to orate in the state-wide intercollegiate competition.

URSINUS ALUMNUS ON U. P. SCHOOLMEN'S WEEK PROGRAM

"Schoolmen's Week" at the University of Pennsylvania will be observed this year from March 21 to 24. The program, just published, reveals the fact that Wallace C. Savage, '19, now located at the Darby High School, is scheduled for a part in the discussion on History on Thursday afternoon.

Bears Close Basketball Season with Two Overwhelming Wins

F. & M. and Lebanon Valley Outclassed in Every Department by Kick's Tossers During Past Week

LAST COURT FRAY FOR HOAGEY, BIGLEY, MOYER, AND FRANCIS

F. AND M. GAME

Rallying after being outplayed in the first ten minutes of action the Ursinus Bears tramped on the accelerator and sped away from their ancient Franklin and Marshall foes by a large 38-21 tally. The game was played last Monday evening in the Thompson-Gay cage before a capacity crowd.

Bears Start Bad

Franklin and Marshall came into camp with an enviable string of scalps dangling at their sides and the first quarter of the game found the Lancaster dribblers outplaying the local firemen. The Bears got off on the wrong foot and after eight minutes of action the Nevonian team was in the lead 8-3.

Exhibiting a fine passing game the outlook was appearing hazy to the Conference aspirations of the Grizzlies as F. & M. seemed to be careening along at full tilt. The wind shifted, however, and the clouds of gloom broke away as Messrs. Bigley and Hoagey, the Siamese captains, cleared the decks for action. In the short space of ten minutes these two firemen had cut the cords for three double deckers apiece, and, adding to this two more twin-pointers by Dick Newcomer, Ursinus had jumped out in front 20-12 at halftime.

Second Half

Again the Bears started off poorly, F. & M., scoring two field goals and a foul toss before Kichline's machine started functioning. With the score

BIOLOGY CLUB HOLDS ITS

STUDENTS' NIGHT MEETING

The Students' Night meeting of the Biology Club was held on Tuesday, March sixth. Miss Sara Shafto read a paper on the topic of the Egyptian Sacred Beetle or "Scarabeus Sacer."

Not only was the beetle used as an object of veneration because of the various ways in which it was connected with the Sun God; it was also given a relation to the periods into which the Egyptians divided their time, because of the many marks on its body, its thirty tarsi and so on. Representatives of the beetles were also used as ornaments. In this form they were canned also to commemorate events in various persons' lives. This fact has been found most useful in compiling chronological tables connected with not well known rulers. The scarab was given an added value when its image was carved from a stone having beneficial qualities. Often in ancient Egypt, a newly created noble was presented with a scarab instead of a coat of arms.

A very interesting discussion led by Mr. Brownback was held after the meeting.

CAPT. FRITSCH ENTERTAINS

With the signals working in perfect style, after some coaching from the side lines to the bus driver, the members of the girls basketball team found themselves the guests of their captain, Mabel Fritsch, at her home at Narberth, after the Swarthmore game. A delicious chicken dinner with all its fixings had been prepared by the captain's mother and was served to the surprised group. The girls had a very pleasant time in an informal social hour and deeply appreciate the kindness of the Fritsch family on this "never to be forgotten" occasion.

LEBANON VALLEY GAME

Winding up one of their most successful seasons they have ever enjoyed the Ursinus basketball quintet fittingly closed the current campaign by handing Lebanon Valley a revengeful 61-28 trouncing last Friday evening in the Thompson-Gay Field Cage.

Bears Won Eleven

Coach Kichline's men have emerged victorious in eleven out of eighteen battles and by their overwhelming triumph of Friday night they defeated the only team which had handed them a serious setback previously this season. The sting of the 45-31 reverse suffered last month at Annville was eased and vengeance gained.

Wild Will Runs Wild

Appropriately enough, one of the greatest athletes ever to wear the Grizzly colors in battle should climax a glorious athletic career by scintillating in the last court game under the banners of the Red, Old Gold and Black. This quiet but flashy lad was none other than Wild Will Moyer who found time after aiding Newcomer in taking the ball from the alien backboard to slip up the floor and drop nine field goals through the cords from difficult angles and unthinkable positions. To clap the lid tight on his fiery playing he made good four out of four times from the free throw mark. Eight of his nine double deckers came in the second half and in rapid succession. Indeed it was the Quakertown star's brilliant play that held the crowd's interest in the final twenty minutes of an otherwise rather listless game.

Hoagey-Bigley Star

Moyer was not the only fireman tending station, however, and Lloyd Hoagey and Harry Bigley likewise rang down the curtain in a sensational manner after starring for four years on the wooded planks of the Thompson-Gay floor. Both of the twin captains played a smart, aggressive game. Hoagey's floorwork as well as his accurate passing and his assists to Bigley made up for whatever points he sacrificed. Bigley, on the other hand, concluded his basket-

AFF. DEBATE TEAM LOSES

The Ursinus Affirmative debate team lost its second meet of the season at Lewisburg last Wednesday evening by the hands of the strong Bucknell team. The university debaters represented a more mature team whose oratory was faultless. Coached by Professor Drum, himself a former debater and winner of the intercollegiate oratorical contest, the Bucknellians presented a thorough knowledge of the primary question. The Ursinus squad were very effective in their argument but their plan seemed to bear little weight with the decision, which was 3 to 0 in favor of the negative. Ursinus was represented by the following men: Robert Roth '29, James C. Poff '29, William Williams '29 and Charles Keller '29.

One Tuesday evening, March 13, the Bucknell affirmative debates the Ursinus Negative team in Bomberger Hall. The third speaker for the up-state team is Lee Francis Lybarger, Jr., winner of the Pennsylvania intercollegiate oratorical contest in 1926.

On Saturday evening of the same week the Juniata Alumni Association will sponsor a debate between that college and Ursinus in Philadelphia. Ursinus will debate the affirmative side of the primary question.

Editorial Comment

IN DEFENSE

Ursinus College has been receiving some unfavorable and very damaging attention within the past several months, due to the printing of news articles throughout the eastern part of the state, these articles describing some so-called "college pranks." To the lay reader, and to those who are not acquainted with conditions as they really exist, it must seem that Ursinus College is becoming the sort of place which is highly undesirable to attend or with which to be in any way associated.

It is our purpose to use this column to explain conditions as they actually are, and to defend the fair name of Ursinus. In the first place, let it be distinctly understood that the several atrocities which have transpired recently upon the campus in no way represent the spirit and heart of the student body as a whole. They are simply the work of a few very misguided individuals, whose room has become much more desirable than their company.

It seems to us that the authorities should see that definite steps be taken to rid the campus of these undesirables and that this action be immediate and final.

In this, they are under a serious handicap, and, strange to say, this handicap has been imposed upon them by the very attitude that the students have taken towards the matter. It seems to have become an unwritten law that the offender be shielded by the silence of his college mates, even if by so doing they jeopardize their own well-being, both present and future.

The situation does not call for the "peaching" of trivial facts or suspicions, but it does call for a banding together of all right-minded students into a body so strong that potential offenders will abandon any foul schemes that they may concoct.

Another thing which has become a necessity is that all students, alumni and friends of Ursinus unite in proclaiming abroad that the College is being very unjustly judged when it is spoken of as the "place where they take the organ apart and steal the records." Let us repeat that such unfortunate occurrences are not a cross-section of the student life, but are simply the work of some criminalistically minded individuals who have strayed into our midst, and who are certain to stray out again, without a degree from Ursinus College.

Why is it that people forget the great men and women who have come from our halls, and the present work of higher education that is now being carried on within them, and think only of the one or two events which have cropped out recently? That very attitude presents a challenge to us all. It challenges us to do so many worth-while things as a body that the evil actions of several misplaced persons among us will serve only to bring out the better and truer side by contrast.

C. R. S., '29.

A recent investigation of the antics of some of the members of the Freshman Basketball Team by the Men's Student Council in regards to the removal of articles not belonging to them from other institutions on away trips brings to light a disagreeable and disgusting state of affairs. If it is true and it seems to be quite definitely proven that various and sundry pieces of equipment and so called "trophies" aggregating considerable value are regularly packed into the grips of our Freshman representatives when they are supposed to honorably uphold the name of Ursinus it is high time that the thing was stopped. We might suggest that a moving van be taken along with the team and a self-help job given to the most efficient member of the "looters."

The guilty parties should remember that although they are securing remembrances for themselves yet they are at the same time injuring the College in an irreparable fashion.

It is a great pleasure to be able to praise a good work. There has been established this year at Ursinus a teachers placement bureau by Professor Tyson. His object is to secure positions for members of the Senior class who expect to enter the teaching profession. The bureau or agency will get the embryo professor in touch with schools located in eastern Pennsylvania and parts of adjacent states in proximity to the College. This idea, or rather the practicable application of such an idea speaks well for the head of the education department.

Although the student is continually subjected to impressive speeches which proclaim his great debt to the institution, and of his debt there is no doubt, yet it might also be true that the student is in some small way a creditor to the school aside from his money, which does not defray the total cost of his education, he puts four years of perhaps the best years of his life, into the school. This is one way for the school to help the student and should demand greater loyalty when the graduating class become alumni.

The establishment of this agency by Professor Tyson is a forward step in fulfilling a long felt need at Ursinus. He is deserving of the highest credit and praise for his concrete way of manifesting an intelligent interest in his students.

WEEKLY WITTICISMS

What is becoming of Bomberger Hall? Two "movies" in the same day—"two a day" as it were.

One of the subtitles in the Fleishmann yeast picture was: "I haven't eaten breakfast for two years." Neither have many of us, but ours is a different reason.

It would be another miracle if this week were to pass without something sensational happening.

Famous sayings:
"They shall not pass."—the faculty.
"A cat in the lab. is worth two on the streets."—Prof. Brownback.
"Water, water, everywhere, even in the gasoline tank."—Professor Klingaman.
"Eat and be merry, if possible."—All of us.

We knew that our prophecy concerning bathing beauties would come true. Several of Linwood's "in-mates" were seen cavorting about in the snow on Friday. It's just too bad that the photographer of some Sunday newspaper or tabloid sheet wasn't present to catch them at it. Be discreet girls, be discreet.

SCHAFF OFFICERS ELECTED

BRODBECK WINS DORM LEAGUE

Although three games remain unplayed Brodbeck Hall is certain of first position honors in the inter-dorm basketball league. The Brodbeck quintet clinched the championship by its win over Derr Hall in a preliminary to the Ursinus-F. & M., fray. The winners played through the league without a blemish on the lose side of the ledger.

With one more game to play Highland is practically assured of second place. It is possible, however, for either Stine or Curtis to tie them for the second berth. The complete standing to date is included below.

Team	Won	Lost
Brodbeck	5	0
Highland	3	1
Stine	2	2
Curtis	1	2
Freeland	1	4
Derr	0	3

URSINUS COLLEGE is Fifty-two thousand dollars better off than it was a week ago, that much having been added to the permanent assets of the institution through the settlement of two estates. The larger of these estates was that of the late William Welsh Harrison, LL. D., whose bequest to Ursinus was $50,000. This amount was paid to our Treasurer within the past week by the executors of the Harrison estate.

By an action of the Board of Directors taken when the bequest of Mr. Harrison became known about a year ago, the entire sum is added to the permanent endowment. It was ordered at the time that the money should be invested for the time being in the new dormitory buildings. The net income, $2,500 annually, instead of being used for current purposes, is to be invested and these investments are to compound themselves until the entire fund of $50,000 is established in outside securities. Thus in the course of time the Harrison Fund will have rendered indispensable service in helping to finance the erection of the new dormitories and will then go on as an independent fund perpetually contributing its income to the current support of the college.

Had not this bequest become known when it did, we would have but one new dormitory building instead of two. The Board had voted to erect one building although it was known that this would not meet the need. However, contractors were asked to add a postscript to their bids giving the figure at which they would erect two buildings at the same time on the one set of specifications, hoping that the way might open for undertaking the larger operation. It was while the specifications were out in the hands of bidders, that the will of Mr. Harrison was probated and the bequest to Ursinus became known. When the Board met to award the contract action was taken as noted above.

The second bequest, $2,000, was left in trust for Ursinus College by the late Rev. Richard S. Appel, D. D. It represents part of the savings of a frugal minister of the gospel gathered through a long pastorate. The Hamburg Savings & Trust Company, Hamburg, Pa., is the trustee. The income will be paid annually to the College and is to be used in aiding students who are preparing themselves for the Christian ministry.

The acts of these two men—one wealthy, the other of only modest means, should cause everyone to pause and ponder. Whether possessed of much or little, one's accumulations must be left behind in the world in which they were amassed. To society whose laws and customs make possible the building up of estates, every one is under obligation. Is there any better way of meeting this obligation than by putting one's stored up funds back of some institution incorporated under the laws of the State for the purpose of ever upbuilding and improving the human society out of which the funds were originally realized?

RULE REVISION TREATED AT CONFERENCE TUESDAY

A conference concerning the revision of girls' rules was held Tuesday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. room. Those participating were the Dean of Women, the preceptresses, the members of the Women's Student Council, the present house presidents and those of last semester, and the chairmen of the student council committees.

A discussion of the constitution and rules of the W. S. G. A. was held in the afternoon from four to six with Miss Ruth Von Steuben, '28, presiding. At six the group adjourned

ALUMNI NOTES

Rev. Edward Rutledge Cook, '25, and Mrs. Cook are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Cook was formerly H. Ruth Walton, of Blue Bell, and is a niece of the editor of the Collegeville Independent, Mr. Elwood Moser. Mr. Cook is pastor of the Boehm's Reformed Church of Blue Bell, Montgomery county, Pa. Rumor has it that the young "preacher-ette" will be named Hattie Ruth Cook.

Kathryn E. Weste, ex-'27, is attending Gettysburg College since the beginning of the second semester. She is enrolled in the Senior Class.

Rev. John W. Myers, '20, B. D., M. R. E., who has served as pastor of the First Reformed Church at Charlotte, North Carolina, for the past several years, has recently been elected head of the Department of Religious Education at Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C. He will enter upon his new duties next fall. Since graduating from Ursinus in 1920, Mr. Myers graduated from Central Theological Seminary Dayton, Ohio., received his Master of Religious Education degree from Boston University; and has taken additional graduate work at the University of Cincinnati. He has also served as director of Religious Education in Brockton, Massachusetts, and in Schenectady, New York. The work at Catawba College will be that of buliding up a new Department of Religious Education.

Clarence E. Toole, '08, has been elected superintendent of the schools of Pottsville, Pa., at a salary of $6,000. Superintendent Toole's rise in the profession is most gratifying to his friends. Ursinus College offers congratulations to the schools of Pottsville and best wishes to the new superintendent.

Y. M.-Y. W. C. A.

A very interesting illustrated lecture was given, under the joint auspices of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. by Dr. Charles L. Fry, one of the Secretaries of the Lutheran Foreign Board, Wednesday evening, March 7, in Bomberger Hall.

Dr. Fry's subject was "South America." As a prelude to his lecture he gave a parable in chemistry which showed the relationship between Man, God and Sin. He then pointed out that North America has no city which can compare with the beauty of the Argentinian capital, Buenos Aires. He proceeded to discuss life there, accompanying his discussion with appropriate slides. He brought to view many interesting facts. For instance, there are twenty separate, independent governments in South America which have acquired this state by the timely intervention of the United States. From a canvass made in a certain university only four students out of five thousand professed any knowledge of Christianity. He closed his lecture by stating that there was a great need in South America for education and he made a plea for workers that would accomplish this.

Previous to Dr. Fry's lecture, a musical selection was given by Trauger and Maurer, both '31.

MODERN POETRY SUBJECT OF ENGLISH CLUB MEETING

An interesting meeting of the English Club at Firecroft Tuesday evening had as its subject modern poetry, both English and American. Miss Charlotte Berger, '28, had prepared a paper on blank and free verse, and this contained an able discussion of these revdlt's against the ordinary rhymed poetry.

Miss Rebecca Engel's paper contained an interesting account of the lives and works of three leading American poets, Edna St. Vincent Millay, Edwin Arlington Robinson and Amy Lowell. These writers represent different and yet important types of poets at the present time.

Similarly, the lives of three English poets were treated in a paper by Miss Mildred Stibitz. These writers were Alice Meynell, John Masefield and Alfred Noyes, all of whom are ranked among the most worth-while poets of this day.

P.A. wins on every count

ANY way you figure it, P.A. is better tobacco. Take fragrance, for instance. Your well-known olfactory organ will tell you. And taste—who can describe that? And mildness—you couldn't ask for anything milder.

Yes, Sir, P.A. is cool and comfortable and mellow and mild. Long-burning, with a good clean ash. You never tire of P.A. It's always the same old friendly smoke. Get yourself a tidy red tin and check everything I'm telling you!

The festivities are to begin at 6 p. m.

According to advance announcements the meal is to be one "worthy of the best Berks County traditions," and the music for dancing will be of the highest order.

The committee, headed by Rev. F. C. Schlater, 129 Oley Street, Reading, requests that all reservations be made at once, as a large turnout is expected.

FROSH LOSE, WHILE JUNIOR VARSITY TRIMS W. CHESTER

The Ursinus Frosh wound up their basketball season by losing to the strong Perkiomen Prep quintet 42-28 on the latter's court last Saturday afternoon.

Perkiomen, who advanced to the semi-finals in the Penn Tourney this year, held a 21-11 lead over the yearlings after the first twenty minutes of play.

In the second stanza four double-deckers by Don Sterner, Frosh leader, boosted the Bears' total but Haines managed to keep the Perky team ahead by a safe margin.

Sterner was the outstanding performer of the fracas tallying fourteen points to lead both teams in scoring but this was not enough to keep his former alma mater from winning the decision. Wentzel, a Pottstown boy, and Haines were the big guns for the victors.

In a rather loosely played game the Ursinus Jayvees registered a win over the reserve cagemen of West Chester State Teachers' College at West Chester on Saturday afternoon.

The game was somewhat marred by the numerous substitutions which were made by both teams. At no point in the game was there any doubt of the superiority of the Ursinus aggregation. The playing of the Little Bears was featured by the work of Young and Strine who performed creditably on the floor. Young was high score man with three field goals and four free throws to his credit. The score at half time stood 16 to 5.

URSINUS REPRESENTED AT RELIGIOUS CONVENTION

"Religious Education in a Scientific Age" was the subject for discussion at the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Religious Education Association held at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel in Philadelphia, from March 6th to 9th. Speakers of recognized authority in their respective fields presented the problems as they affect religion from the standpoint of the natural sciences, psychology and philosophy. Open discussions were held in which many interesting phases of the subject were brought to light. Ursinus was ably represented by President Omwake, Dr. Isenberg, Dean Kline, Professors Tower and Tyson and Mr. and Mrs. Sheeder.

ball days at Ursinus by having one of his good nights and rolled nine through the hoops to tally eighteen markers. Joel Francis, the fourth senior of the squad to be lost by graduation, played both in the first and second halves and although having no opportunity to register any markers his guarding and floor work was good.

Lebanon Valley Weak
Coach "Hook" Mylin shooed his flock out on the floor minus their star and bulwark of the team, Charley Gelbert, who played such a prominent part in the Bears' humiliation several weeks ago. Since then he quit the lure of college sports to receive a tryout with the St. Louis Cards. Gelbert was a three letter man at Lebanon Valley and was mentioned for All-American honors in football the past year. The Bears, however, were unbeatable Friday evening and the Annville collegians at their best would not have been good enough.

Bears Rush Out
The Grizzlies lost no time in getting under way, so that after six minutes had elapsed Kichline's men were out in front 8-1. This lead was rapidly increased, Bigley tallying seven twin pointers in the first fifteen minutes and Young knocking off four in as many sixty second periods. At halftime the tabulation awarded the decision to Ursinus 34-8.

The second half found the varsity starting and Bill Moyer on a rampage. Moyer furnished practically all the fireworks and thrills as he captivated his audience by ringing up eight field goals and making good on two foul heaves. Although Lebanon Valley scored more than their allotted eight points in the second half no one started an investigation about it or became seriously worried.

22-17 Ursinus speeded up so that Coach Schroyer's team never threatened. The Grizzly defense stiffened and although Ursinus outplayed F. & M. in the second half both teams played below their usual standard while much of the shooting and passing was of a low calibre.

By winning, Ursinus can lay claims to the Conference basketball title having defeated both Muhlenberg and Franklin and Marshall, the only two teams played in the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference.

Bigley High
Harry Bigley carried off the scoring honors by tallying six times from the field of battle and as many times from the free throw line. "Scoop" Hoagey had but one less field goal and no fouls. Brown, F. & M.'s rangy guard led the Lancasterians in the attack with seven points while the accurate shooting of Rupp featured the visitors' game.

INTERCOLLEGIATE COMMENT

At a recent poll conducted by The Yale Daily News on compulsory chapel, the undergraduates voted against the system of enforced religious attendance 1564 to 218.

At Temple University examinations have been done away with because the psychology department believes them to be inaccurate, antiquated, and influenced by personalities.

A college course for washerwomen is being organized by the state university at Springfield, Mass. The "laundry institute" will take the blues from washday, it is claimed, and will teach housewives the scientific method of washing the clothes, the baby, and themselves.

Freshmen at Drake University who were pledged to fraternities were forced to release fair co-eds from their arms at a dance and were padded by upperclassmen. The older students descended on the freshman dance armed with paddles, ordered the freshmen to release their partners, and using the ballroom floor for a paddling parlor, smacked lustily while the co-eds giggled.
